Tour the Swiss Homestead on Saturday!

Each Saturday from 1 to 5 p.m. the Swiss Community Historical Society's Schumacher Homestead, 8350 Bixel Road, Bluffton, is open to the public

Society docents will tell visitors about the homestead and the generations of the Schumacher family who lived there.

In addition to the restored 1843 house, areas open to visitors are the reconstructed summer kitchen, restored workshop, 1850s kitchen garden, outdoor bake oven and extensive grounds.

The homestead is open every Saturday afternoon, June through August. On July 14, there will also be 19th-century games and on Aug. 11, period workshop tools will be demonstrated. The 1854 barn will be open on the last Saturday of each month.

Admission is $5 for adults. There is no charge for children 16 and under who are accompanied by an adult.
