

It's Halloween in Bluffton!

Bluffton  ICON

Bluffton gets dressed up one night a year

It's one night of the year when you can dress in your alter ego, whatever mask is in your attic, or whatever your mom suggests.

The Bluffton Icon watched the parade of young and old passing through the Bluffton Public Library on Thursday evening.

Our attempt to capture the mood of the party-goers is in this collection of photos.
