JULY DINNER MEETING

Sharleen Olson, Betty Moser, and Marilyn Lenhart decorated the Senior Center with red, white, and blue. The AC was on and everyone felt good after such a "hot" week, the week before. Carolyn Green, our MC, opened the evening with prayer and we were served a lovely meal by the Mt. Cory Methodist Church. The pie was especially good!!! After dinner, birthdays and announcements were given; followed by Carolyn reading a short memory that she had written on growing up during the depression. It brought back many memories for people. Tonya then took over with a quiz bowl. Louise LaRoche, Morris Groman, Ruby Mabry, Mary Ann Kooker, Joel Kimmel, Rosemary Meyer, Clarence Kooker, Bev Painter, Bob Bowersox became contestants and answered questions on topics from Wars to Olympics to Hawaii. Joel Kimmel, Rosemary Meyer and Mary Ann Kooker each got 4 out of 5 questions correct and participated in a lightning round. Mary Ann Kooker was crowned champion and won a $10 Gift Certificate to Shirley's Popcorn. A fun time was had by all.

INDIANA VENTURE

Our fun filled day started out with 30 plus seniors boarding a full size coach. Yes, interest was so great we left the small van behind and went by bus so that all could be accommodated. Our first amazing site was right here in Northwest Ohio as we approached Van Wert. Off to our right were hundreds of wind turbines churning away in the early morning dew to make power and farming income the new way.

Adventure One took place West and North of Fort Wayne, almost to the Michigan State Line near a small town of Wolcottville Ind.. Cooks Bison Ranch staffers welcomed us, while we freshened up from our long ride and checked out the gift shop. We loaded up on two field wagons for the ride into the pasture. Friendly one ton beasts welcomed us by walking up to the wagon, extending their very long tongues to grab treats we offered to them. Buffalo as we call them have no front teeth so we did not fear a bite from the huge bison. Baby bison about the size of cow calves followed their mothers and joined in on grabbing treats while we petted all who would stay close to our wagon. As the two-ton bull marched around he would scatter the herd while the matriarch females also had the same affect. As we delighted in the interaction with these historic animals our guide shared Bison facts and myths. A chuck wagon lunch followed which of course included bison as our meat, a well done roast lean and tasty.

Adventure Two took us west to Nappanee Ind., to visit Amish Acres historic farm turned resort. The round barn theater was our first stop to enjoy the stage presentation "State Fair" based on the book and movie version of 1945, 1962 remake. Cool air, soft seats and a lot of humor entertained us for the afternoon. Much to our surprise and delight we walked out into 20 degrees drop in temp. and wet pavement. To top off our Indiana venture we sat down to a Threshers Meal. From appetizer to desert we enjoyed the barn atmosphere, view out the windows, fellowship with our fellow travelers and good food before we boarded our bus trip home in the rain.
