It's where Bluffton gets its news!

- Smiles
- Panic
- New routine
- Where's my room?
- Let's take one more picture
- Hello, Mr. Closson
- First day jitters

All of the above represent things going on between 7:30 and 8 a.m., at Jackson and Church on Monday, Aug. 28, 2017.

Here's our dozen or so photos of the first day of the 2017-18 school year. On the inside of school our focus is primarily first grade, but our mix of photos and video represent the entire building.
