

Bluffton Heritage Center Project

Program

Introduction and Background	-	Phillip Kingsley
Project Introduction	-	Charles Niswander

PURPOSE: To inspire people to learn from our past history.

VISION: Bluffton Heritage Center will be a non-profit, permanent institution that acquires, conserves, researches, communicates and exhibits authentic historical objects for purposes of study, education and enjoyment.

MISSION STATEMENT: The Bluffton Heritage Center maintains its facilities for the acquisition, preservation and exhibition of area history. The Center strives to be an accessible resource actively encouraging the appreciation and understanding of our area history. We believe that our Center provides a unique educational experience based on objects, stories, and lives of people reflecting our community's past traditions which are rich with ingenuity, resourcefulness and innovation.
