Hello!

INTRODUCING DEBRA BEER

With Mary Koontz's retirement, the Bluffton Senior Center needed to hire a new Craft Director. Debra Beer started on June 3rd. Deb is married to Bob Beer and has lived in Bluffton since 1979. Bob was hired by Triplett. Debra and her mother, Annie Stocking, (who lives with Deb), have been members of the Bluffton Senior Center since 2011. Deb and Bob have two children, Elizabeth and David. Both of their children are married. They have three grandchildren with two on the way. Deb's mother is a very good sewer but Deb learned to sew in Jr. High home economic class. She got interested in quilting when they found 36 quilt squares in her grandmother's attic that her great-grandmother had made. She learned to quilt so she could finish the quilt which was a "Chimney Sweep" pattern. Deb is a member of the Bluffton Scrap Artist Quilters. Deb used to work for the Bluffton News and when she would come to the Senior Center, thought "Mary Koontz has the perfect job!" Deb has some new project ideas for the Senor Center store and is looking for some sewers to help make the items. Next time you are in the Senior Center, come and introduce yourself to Debra (Deb).

PUT-IN-BAY

Fifty (50) people set out on a cold dreary June morning for Put-in-Bay. Tonya lightened the mood with games, jokes, and candy. We had a ruff crossing to South Bass Island, but exciting, with the sun coming out soon after we arrived to the island, the day turned beautiful! Our trolley tour took us to several stops including an antique car museum, historical museum, and the Episcopal Church. From here, we went to lunch at the Blue Luna, an Italian restaurant. The most popular dish of the day was "the fish of the day." There was a little free time and some of the group went up Perry's Monument, shopped around, or just sat and watched people. After a very pleasant ride back to the main land, we boarded the coach for Marblehead Lighthouse. The lighthouse wasn't open but the views from the lighthouse grounds were very pretty. After a quick stop for ice cream, it was time to head for home, tired and full stomachs!

SMOKY MOUNTAIN TRIP (May 13-17, 2013) continues

3 p.m., we were scheduled to see a show at the Smoky Mountain Opry theater. It was a fast moving shows of Rock & Roll (loud), songs of the 40's, disco, and gospel with circus acts, magic acts, and songs from famous movies: Mary Poppins, Rent, LesMiserables, and my favorite, "Lion King." During the Lion King part they had two real tigers in cages on stage. Unbelievable costumes, music, talent, lighting, and we were exhausted again from just watching. From here we headed down the road to Smith's Family Restaurant and show. Sat in rows and we went through a buffet line to get our own food. Nothing was real fancy here like the other places, but simple, plain, and tasty (the food). While eating, a small local group of guys entertained us with mountain tunes. Jim Smith and his wife then performed for 1 ½ hours singing songs that famous singers made in years gone by Half way through, he asked for people that had a special card by their plate to come up on the stage for a hulu hoop contest, 4 women and 4 men. Becky Burgard, from Mt.Blanchard and from our group, went and ended up winning with the other ladies. Congratulations, Becky! A young girl who probably was about 9 years old could twirl her hoop well, too!

Wednesday was the day for Dollywood!!! Here we come from Ohio along with probably 6000 more people and children there for the day! It opened at 10 a.m. and we walked through the gate at 10:30 a.m. Bus, bus, cars, vans, and motorcycles everywhere! Bob & Bev handed out bottles of water, got our tickets, and through the gate, got a map of the park away we went. Keith and I headed up towards the train depot to take a ride on the old steam engine train. (It made me think of Old Threshers in Iowa where Keith does blacksmithing there and a train goes by his shop all the time and to smell that smoke!!Wow!!) We were early for the ride, so we walked in the area and looked over some shops. There was a Magic Shop and that always interests Keith. He found a couple of trick items he had to purchase. After the ride, we visited with the engineer for a little while and headed for the Crafts Man's Valley. Just a little hungry, so we got a sandwich, a cup of ham & beans, and a drink.

JUNE DINNER MEETING

Monday evening, June 10th, sixty-six people met for our monthly catered meal at the Senior Center. Hostess was Deloris Herman with helpers, Leannah Reigle and Mary Hofstetter. Decorations were many different table games and chocolate kisses on the table. Waiting for the meal, guests were asked to answer a question placed on the table for the entertainment to follow. Tonya collected the slips while the food was being served. Mary Hofstetter was the MC for the evening and opened with a story and prayer for the meal. Schnipke's Inn served a very tasty beef steak/gravy meal with the trimmings and strawberry shortcake for dessert. Yum!!! Mary then acknowledged the June birthdays and anniversaries which the group sang to both. Our special 90 year old guest was Eloise J. Bunn and interviewed by Tonya. She still tries to keep active and likes to drive. Bob and Tonya then refreshed our minds of the trips from the Center and told about the ones that still need people to make the trip able to go. So if you are thinking about one, stop by the office and sign up and you know you'll like what you pick.

Tonya then hosted the game "WHAT'S MY LINE." The following statements were used for people to match the person who did whatever. See if you can match the name to the clue. The names are A- Marlin Burkholder B-Linda Childs C-Barb Shinabery D-Loyce Plaugher E-Ruby Mabry F-Harley Childs G-Clarence Kooker H- Mary Hofstetter I- Ray Shinabery

7.	Had an ecumenical wedding: married in an Episcopal church, husband was a Baptist, I

8.	Lost on a train ride in France & England; ended up in Belgium.
9.	Had a grand champion steer in 1954 and 1956 at the Allen Co. Fair.

All seemed to have a good time and thanks to Tonya for an evening of laughter and visiting.

You may notice something new when you visit the restrooms at the Senior Center. The men's room now has motion detector light switches and the women's will have them in the near future. This will save us all from fumbling around for the light switch and then having to remember to turn them off.
