MYSTERY TRIP

On an overcast Tuesday in September, forty-one (41) people boarded a motor coach without a clue as to where they were going after taking two rights and a left. We arrived at the Bluffton Slaw Cutters. Unfortunately, the owner forgot we were coming, so we didn't get a tour. It was back on the coach to our next stop, Pappy's Sassafras Teas in Columbus Grove. Marilyn Hamilton had guessed Pappy's so she won a puzzle book. Jeff Nordhaus, the manager of Pappy's and his dad showed us around the plant, gave us the history and gave us samples of the tea. Next, we headed toward Van Wert but passed it! We stopped at a road side rest area next to the Wind Turbines for a short visit. Then we took back roads back to Van Wert for lunch at the Orchard Tree. When everyone was full, we headed to the Brumback Library, the first County Library in the United States. The library is shaped like a castle and was built between 1899 and 1901. After a brief tour, it was on to Central's Fire Museum where we had a guided tour. Unfortunately, some of those on the tour had been at the Fire Museum over the summer, so it was not too exciting for them. We wanted to stop for ice cream at the Creamery in Delphos on the way home but they were closed for the season. So we arrived early back at Bluffton, and a good time was had by all:

TRIP TO LACOMEDIA....September 24th

A bus load of excited Seniors left Bluffton on a beautiful, sunny day heading for the LaComedia Dinner Theater, Springboro. We were going to see the production of "The Church Basement Ladies" in "The Last Potluck Supper." Needless to say, we were not disappointed! We laughed at the many situations these ladies created and related some of them to our own experiences. The poor minister was involved in some of the situations against his wishes.

The dinner buffet was excellent and no one left hungry!

Going down, we had a quiz on Ohio which caused us to use our brains more than we were used to and coming home we found out we were not "Smarter Than A Fifth Grader." Bev treated us to some of her famous cookies! We arrived back home, tired, but still looking forward to another trip, at another time. Eileen Amstutz

OCTOBER DINNER MEETING

Fifty (50) people gathered for a fun evening in October. Rosemary and Basil Meyer had decorated the table with crab apples and leaves. Mary Hofstetter, our MC, opened the evening with a prayer. Eastern Star 550 served us a lovely meal of baked steak and trimmings and cake. After dinner and announcements by the staff, Ryan Strickler entertained everyone with his wonderful piano playing. A great time was had by all present.
