

2014
Bluffton
holiday
lighting
contest
winners

Bluffton  ICON

Bluffton is truly a Blaze of Lights each December. This year is no different.

Here are photographs of winning Bluffton Area Chamber of Commerce downtown window lighting contest and Village of Bluffton residential light contest.

Judges considered residential lighting displays within the village limits. In addition, they looked at residences that requested to be judged.

Downtown winners

- First place - Reichenbach and Steiner CPA, 140 N. Main St.
- Second place - Town and Country Flowers, 121 S. Main St.
- Third place - Citizens National Bank, 102 S. Main St.

Residential winners:

- First place overall - $150 gift certificate – Wehri residence, 229 Bentley Road
- Second place overall - $100 gift certificate – Housh residence, 120 Eastland Drive
- Third place overall - $50 gift certificate – Fruchey residence, 465 Shannon Street
- Best Religious - $50 gift certificate – Worchester residence, 120 Beaver Street
- Best “use of lights” - $50 gift certificate – Keeler residence, 503 Greeding Street
- Best “minimal use of lights” - $50 gift certificate – Hughes residence, 53 Wilhelm Circle
- Mayor’s Choice - $50 gift certificate – Brodman residence, 120 Railroad Street

This year’s residential lighting contest prize money was in part supported by a $150 grant from First National Bank.

First place downtown window decorating contest
Reichenbach and Steiner CPA, 140 N. Main St.

Second place downtown window decorating contest
Town and Country Flowers, 121 S. Main St.

Third place downtown window decorating contest
Citizens National Bank, 102 S. Main St.

First place residential lighting winners
Wehri residence, 229 Bentley Road

Second place residential lighting winners
Housh residence, 120 Eastland Drive

Third place residential lighting winners
Fruchey residence, 465 Shannon St.

Best use of lights - residential lighting winners
Keeler residence, 503 Greeding St.

Best religious display - residential lighting winners
Worcester residence, 120 Beaver St.

Mayor's Choice - residential lighting winners
Brodman residence, 120 Railroad St.

Best minimal use of lights- residential lighting winners
Hughes residence, 53 Wilhelm Circle